GRAÇA

Graça is one of the oldest districts of Lisbon, located on the top of its highest hill, northeast of the Castle of São Jorge, passing the Monastery of São Vicente de Fora. With a diverse population in a rich historical district, here residents born in Graça mingle with new residents who seek the traditional architecture of this old part of Lisbon. You will surely be conquered by this neighborhood, its location, history and soul.

The neighborhood, which revolves around Largo da Graça (Lisbon's most iconic streetcar, the 28 has its final station here), benefits from some of the most spectacular views of Lisbon and is a charming place whose narrow streets are full of pastries, restaurants and traditional commerce.
